

WJZ-TV
Baltimore, Maryland
CBS Corporation
QUARTERLY SIGNIFICANT PROGRAMS REPORT
Second Quarter
April 1 – June 30, 2008

Station WJZ-TV, licensed to CBS Corporation, is responsive to the principal issues in its community of license, Baltimore, Maryland on a continuing basis. A variety of program elements, including regularly scheduled news and public affairs programming, reports on breaking news events, documentaries, specials, and public service announcements of concern to the community are included within our regular programming service. WJZ-TV's coverage of news stories, our employees' participation in community affairs, and regular interviews with community leaders have led to the determination that the issues listed are ones of importance to the Baltimore community. Our most significant programming, which dealt with current community issues during the preceding three-month period, are set forth in this report. WJZ-TV broadcasts both locally-produced and network programming. Although we include only local programs herein, WJZ-TV also broadcasts several network broadcasts including FACE THE NATION, 60 MINUTES, CBS REPORTS and 48 HOURS.

PROGRAM INDEX

CONSUMER WATCH

WJZ reporters cover consumer interest topics. These reports air in the 4pm, 5pm and 6pm newscasts.

HEALTHWATCH

WJZ's medical reporter, Kellye Lynn, discusses health issues and interviews experts and patients to deliver information on the latest advances in health for our 4pm, 5pm and 6pm newscasts.

SPECIAL REPORTS

Locally produced special reports, focusing on community issues, local lifestyle trends and local personality profiles. These air in the 4pm, 5pm, 6pm and 11pm newscasts.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS OUTREACH

Relevant projects launched by community organizations to benefit area residents.

ON TIME

A half-hour, Sunday morning public affairs program that airs at 6:30AM, focusing on leaders, issues and events, affecting the Baltimore community.

HEALTH

April 1: Eyewitness News did a story on new CPR guidelines announced by the American Heart Association.

April 1: Eyewitness News did a story on a new product for sinus headaches called the Sinus Buster.

April 2: Eyewitness News did a story on the ability to quit smoking and genetic make-up.

April 3: Eyewitness News did a story on how living green is good for the planet as well as good for the body.

April 3: Eyewitness News did a story on whether the benefits of drinking 8 glasses of water a day are a myth.

April 7: Eyewitness News did a story on the alarmingly high number of medicine mix-ups involving small children.

April 8: Eyewitness News did a story on a six-way kidney transplant at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

April 8: Eyewitness News did a story on a new treatment for diabetic foot ulcers.

April 9: Eyewitness News did a story on a new way researchers are calculating lung age in smokers.

April 10: Eyewitness News did a story on a study that says zapping produce could help eliminate food-borne illnesses.

April 11: Eyewitness News did a story on the many health benefits of laughter.

April 15: Eyewitness News did a story on safety questions surrounding the painkiller Vioxx.

April 22: Eyewitness News did a story on how martial arts can reduce pain in cancer patients.

April 23: Eyewitness News did a story on how too many antioxidants can be harmful for the body.

April 24: Eyewitness News did a story on how the amount of potassium a woman eats could help influence whether she produces a boy baby.

April 25: Eyewitness News did a story on how Nintendo Wii is good exercise for people with arthritis.

April 28: Eyewitness News did a story on gene therapy as an option to improve sight in people with a rare form of blindness.

April 30: Eyewitness News did a story on the risks involved with taking estrogen-based birth control.

May 1: Eyewitness News did a story on new colon cancer screening recommendations.

May 2: Eyewitness News did a story on the dangers of surgical fires in the operating room.

May 3: Eyewitness News did a story on the germs smothering computer keyboards.

May 6: Eyewitness News did a story on how the benefits of quitting smoking are greater than previously thought.

May 7: Eyewitness News did a story on how women are not getting the care and treatment they need to ward off heart disease.

May 7: Eyewitness News did a story on a government study that shows people who sleep less than six hours or more than nine hours a day are more likely to be obese.

May 7: Eyewitness News did a story on a computer technology that aids with surgery on cerebral palsy patients.

May 8: Eyewitness News did a story on over treating kids' fevers.

May 9: Eyewitness News did a story on two moms trying to ease the anxiety of waiting for an organ donation for a baby.

May 12: Eyewitness News did a story on a lawsuit over autistic children and the vaccines their families say caused the condition.

May 13: Eyewitness News did a story on the recommendation for some women to get more than just a mammogram to detect breast cancer.

May 14: Eyewitness News did a story on the thought that the common cold and other viruses may help save children from leukemia.

May 15: Eyewitness News did a story on how too much water can be dangerous for babies to drink.

May 20: Eyewitness News did a story on the risks of cell phones for pregnant women.

May 20: Eyewitness News did a story on the type of brain tumor affecting Senator Ted Kennedy.

May 22: Eyewitness News did a story on lacrosse players and concussions.

May 26: Eyewitness News did a story on quadruplets recently born at Sinai Hospital.

May 28: Eyewitness News did a story on how doctors are trying to prevent heart failure in patients with a new titanium mesh device.

May 30: Eyewitness News did a story on the brain's response to music improvisation.

June 1: Eyewitness News did a story on a Johns Hopkins study that suggests girls benefit more than boys from breastfeeding.

June 3: Eyewitness News did a story on whether artificial food dyes could cause hyperactivity in children.

June 3: Eyewitness News did a story on Maryland's first ever women's only motorcycle ride to raise money for breast cancer research.

June 4: Eyewitness News did a story on vision therapy.

June 5: Eyewitness News did a story on some University of Maryland Medical Center doctors headed to China to help with earthquake relief.

June 6: Eyewitness News did a story on the possible long-term effect on children who use cell phones.

June 6: Eyewitness News did a story on a new procedure that gets rid of varicose veins.

June 9: Eyewitness News did a story on the salmonella tomatoes outbreak.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on a hemispherectomy, a surgery for doctors to removed half of a little girl's brain.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on an experimental device that could suppress the appetite for weight loss patients.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on a Baltimore based study on a robotic procedure used to treat heart bypass patients.

June 16: Eyewitness News did a story on a study that shows coffee may help you live longer.

June 17: Eyewitness News did a story on the alarming rise in the number of premature deliveries in the United States.

June 17: Eyewitness News did a story on the relationship between diabetes and depression.

June 18: Eyewitness News did a story on research that shows sleep apnea can damage parts of the brain.

June 19: Eyewitness News did a story on coronary calcium scans to detect heart disease.

June 20: Eyewitness News did a story on the best treatment for allergies.

June 20: Eyewitness News did a story on Baltimore County's Relay for Life, a program of the American Cancer Society.

June 23: Eyewitness News did a story on the discovery of a protein that may cause Alzheimer's disease.

June 24: Eyewitness News did a story on the growing number of people with diabetes.

June 25: Eyewitness News did a story on amputees benefiting from bionic hands.

June 27: Eyewitness News did a story on the seriousness of elbow and shoulder injuries in children.

June 30: Eyewitness News did a story on CT Heart Scans.

ON TIME

April 6 & May 4: Dr. Beverly Yates talks with Kai Jackson about the need for women in particular to change their eating habits to incorporate more healthy foods. She discusses how African American women are having heart attacks due to poor food choices and lack of exercise.

April 13: Diagnosing autism early, as early as 2 years old, means that children get into treatment programs that are proven to lessen the outcome of the illness. Dr. Katherine Holman tells Kai Jackson what signs parents should look for in their developing toddlers.

April 13: Mike Gimbel tells Kai Jackson how younger and younger middle and high school student athletes are using steroids and human growth hormones. He discusses the dangers of using these substances as well as other performing enhancing substances.

April 20: Hopewell Cancer Support representatives tell Kai Jackson how their diverse programs help make life easier for cancer patients and their families. Yoga to meditation programs are offered at their center.

May 11: Helping mothers and children in developing countries improve their health is the goal of Baltimore's JHPIEGO program. Dr. Leslie Mancuso tells Kai Jackson how their program works with local women and medical professionals to provide basic female and children's health care.

May 11: Michelle Greer lost her husband to a stroke and now she's an ambassador for the Power to End Stroke program. In that capacity, she works with communities to inform them of the warning signs of stroke and how to change diet and exercise to be proactive in preventing a stroke.

May 25: Stroke is a major problem in the African American community and Dr. Mark Gonze explains to Kai Jackson how diabetes, smoking and hypertension are contributing factors. He explains how diets low in fat, regular exercising and taking medications for high cholesterol and high blood pressure can decrease the risks for a stroke. He all discussed the free screening the St. Joseph Medical Center is offering.

June 1: The Red Devils, named for the red chemo drug given to breast cancer patients, helps families dealing with this health crisis. The executive director Jan Wilson and patient Vonnie Uzoukwu tell Kai Jackson how help with household chores to transportation to and from medical appointments is necessary for women undergoing cancer treatment.

June 15: HIV continues to be a significant problem for city young people. Stacey Reed and Ashley Rock tell Kai Jackson about an upcoming conference to teach teens about the disease.

EDUCATION

April 1: Eyewitness News did a story on graduation rates in Baltimore City.

April 2: Eyewitness News did a story on Catholic Education.

April 8: Eyewitness News did a story on local students taking part in a national scholastic competition.

April 14: Eyewitness News did a story on federal funds going to the Cherry Hill learning zone initiative.

April 15: Eyewitness News did a story on school volunteers.

April 18: Eyewitness News did a story on Student violence in Baltimore schools.

April 21: Eyewitness News did a story on Loyola College's plan to change its name.

April 21: Eyewitness News did a story on more college students wanting to go to state-run schools.

April 21: Eyewitness News did a story on school safety in Baltimore.

April 23: Eyewitness News did a story on school construction.

April 25: Eyewitness News did a story on local school kids learning about the environment.

April 29: Eyewitness News did a story on a new plan in Baltimore to better run city schools.

April 30: Eyewitness News did a story on the plan to launch six new schools.

May 3: Eyewitness News did a story on two Maryland High School seniors were selected as Presidential Scholars.

May 5: Eyewitness News did a story on the Baltimore County teacher of the year.

May 7: Eyewitness News did a story on school overcrowding.

May 9: Eyewitness News did a story on the Race for Education.

May 10: Eyewitness News did a story on the debate over slots and how they would benefit education.

May 10: Eyewitness News did a story on City Summer School in Baltimore.

May 13: Eyewitness News did a story on a new education program targeting teen drivers.

May 13: Eyewitness News did a story on the rising cost of college tuition.

May 17: Eyewitness News did a story on the surge in teachers in Baltimore.

May 21: Eyewitness News did a story on music education.

May 27: Eyewitness News did a story on the death of a man who created a local education quiz show.

May 28: Eyewitness News did a story on a 5th grade class who took part in a mock trial.

June 3: Eyewitness News did a story on dozens of students on a hunger strike.

June 5: Eyewitness News did a story on a college tuition freeze in Maryland

June 5: Eyewitness News did a story on a mentoring program that changes the lives of young girls.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on a new plan to get teachers and parents more involved in Baltimore City Schools.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on the achievement gap among minority and poor students.

June 12: Eyewitness News did a story on Villa Julie College changing its name.

June 15: Eyewitness News did a story on Baltimore School leaders calling on men to be more involved in children's education.

June 16: Eyewitness News did a story on single sex classes soon becoming a reality in some Washington DC schools.

June 24: Eyewitness News did a story on Ocean City Elementary test scores.

June 24: Eyewitness News did a story on students partnering up with local colleges for a summer program.

June 24: Eyewitness News did a story on 100 students receiving college scholarships.

June 25: Eyewitness News did a story on the controversy over lunchtime prayer at the Naval Academy.

June 26: Eyewitness News did a story on honor students spending the night at the Baltimore Aquarium.

ON TIME

April 20: Two former members of the Baltimore Urban Debate League took home top honors in a national debate competition. The duo of Dayvon Love and Deven Cooper were the first African American team to take first place. They tell Kai Jackson about their debating style and coach Chris Baron discusses how their approach to debate goes beyond the initial challenge.

June 1: Soap Box Derby competition teaches young people about science and engineering principles. Derby director Michael Niles and top racer Deontae Jones tell Kai Jackson about the skills that go into building these racing cars and how this after school activity is helping to stimulate young people to apply what they are learning in school into real world situations.

June 22: Kai Jackson talks with DeVon Brown who was featured in the documentary, "The Boys of Baraka" about his experiences with being sent to the Baraka school in Africa. He was one of several teens taken from the troubled streets of Baltimore to be educated at this school in Kenya. He tells Kai how this school saved him from the streets and how he has just graduated from high school and will be entering college in the fall.

June 29: Van Reiner, the president of the Maryland Science Center, tells Kai Jackson about the Body Worlds exhibit and how it offers the public a chance to see inside the human body and understand how the systems function together. He discusses how this exhibit is a teaching tool and is helping the public to see first-hand how their lifestyle choices affect their bodies.

CONSUMER

April 1: Eyewitness News did a story on risky mortgages and consumer counseling.

April 3: Eyewitness News did a story on Consumer Reports Best Auto Edition.

April 5: Eyewitness News did a story on a bill to give rebates to BGE customers.

April 5: Eyewitness News did a story on the amount of phosphorus in dishwashing soap.

April 6: Eyewitness News did a story on a new airline quality report.

April 6: Eyewitness News did a story on a recall of Volkswagon Passats.

April 7: Eyewitness News did a story on record gas prices.

April 7: Eyewitness News did a story on stolen GPS devices.

April 10: Eyewitness News did a story on mid-size car crash tests ratings.

April 10: Eyewitness News did a story on record high oil prices.

April 14: Eyewitness News did a story on the merger between Delta and Northwest airlines.

April 18: Eyewitness News did a story on the "cros" shoes getting a safety makeover.

April 20: Eyewitness News did a story on a new campaign to get people to buy a household product made from recycled materials.

April 23: Eyewitness News did a story on a growing shortage of basic food staples like rice.

April 24: Eyewitness News did a story on the switch to digital TV in 2009.

April 26: Eyewitness News did a story on record beer prices.

May 1: Eyewitness News did a story on higher food prices.

May 1: Eyewitness News did a story on wire hangers becoming obsolete at Dry Cleaners.

May 2: Eyewitness News did a story on protecting consumers from Credit Card companies.

May 4: Eyewitness News did a story on a meat recall.

May 13: Eyewitness News did a story on how discount stores have better prices on food than grocery stores.

May 14: Eyewitness News did a story on the "Smart Car" and its crash test rating.

May 15: Eyewitness News did a story on the skyrocketing sales of hybrid cars.

May 15: Eyewitness News did a story on rising food costs.

May 20: Eyewitness News did a story on how foam mattresses could make you sick.

May 21: Eyewitness News did a story on cell phone fees.

May 23: Eyewitness News did a story on higher prices at restaurants because of higher gas prices.

May 29: Eyewitness News did a story on Dow Chemical Products raising its prices.

May 30: Eyewitness News did a story on Stimulus Checks and Consumer Spending.

May 31: Eyewitness News did a story on electricity prices in Maryland

June 3: Eyewitness News did a story on food dyes in snack foods and whether they are harmful.

June 4: Eyewitness News did a story on General Motors stopping production of trucks and SUV's.

June 4: Eyewitness News did a story on car maintenance and gas prices.

June 6: Eyewitness News did a story on Bank of America merging with Countrywide.

June 6: Eyewitness News did a story on year round cruises in Baltimore boosting the local economy.

June 9: Eyewitness News did a story on the salmonella outbreak in tomatoes.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on a potential bill in the Senate to address high gas prices.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on high diesel prices.

June 12: Eyewitness News did a story on United Airlines charging baggage fees.

June 13: Eyewitness News did a story on the inflation rate which is growing higher.

June 18: Eyewitness News did a story on how paying for gas with cash may be cheaper.

June 19: Eyewitness News did a story on how consumers are no longer buying expensive bottled water.

June 22: Eyewitness News did a story on the sale of gas cap locks going way up.

June 24: Eyewitness News did a story on the Federal Reserve Meeting.

June 24: Eyewitness News did a story on the cost of gas and how its affecting school buses.

June 24: Eyewitness News did a story on a crib recall.

June 25: Eyewitness News did a story on how people are spending their economic stimulus checks.

June 25: Eyewitness News did a story on the Federal Reserve's decision not to raise interest rates.

June 26: Eyewitness News did a story on a new supermarket that open in Baltimore City.

June 26: Eyewitness News did a story on fireworks safety.

June 28: Eyewitness News did a story on credit card limits.

June 30: Eyewitness News did a story on CBS' merger with CNET.

June 30: Eyewitness News did a story on where the candidates stand on the economy.

ON TIME

April 13: Rebuilding Together Baltimore uses both skilled and non-skilled volunteers to renovate and rehab houses in some of the city's poorest neighborhoods. Kai Jackson finds out how the program helps keep low-income senior citizens in their own homes.

April 20: Kai Jackson talks with Ted Provenza about financial planning during tough economic times. They discuss the importance of having a three-pronged approach with legal, accounting and financial planners all working together.

April 27: Kai Jackson talks with Diane MacEachern about her book, Big Green Purse, which encourages women to use their clout to purchase environment friendly consumer products. She maintains that women spend eighty-five cents of every dollar in the market and can influence manufacturers to make environmentally sound products – from cars to light bulbs. She cites examples of nail polish, hybrid cars and tea where the consumer demand did result in a “green” difference.

June 1: Kai Jackson talks with Dr. Carla Hayden, executive director of the Enoch Pratt Free Library about the many programs of the library that can help during difficult economic times. From free book, CD, DVD rentals to computer classes to help with resume writing; the Pratt is a resource for information and entertainment.

June 22: To address the housing crisis in Baltimore City, Paul Graziano, commissioner of Baltimore Housing and Sally Scott co-chair of the Baltimore Homeownership Preservation Coalition, tell Kai Jackson about a series of housing mortgage counseling workshops that are being held in various city neighborhoods.

June 15: Kai Jackson talks with Secretary Raymond Skinner about the mortgage foreclosure problem in Maryland. They discuss new statewide programs aimed at keeping homeowners from losing their homes by offering emergency loans to people who are behind on mortgage payments.

COMMUNITY

April 26: Eyewitness News sponsored and provided live news coverage of The Ride On For Autism Research at Oregon Ridge Park.

May 1: Eyewitness News sponsored and reported on Weather Day for school groups at Oriole Park.

May 2: Eyewitness News sponsored and provided live news coverage of the 8th Annual Gelfman Ride Across Maryland.

May 3: Eyewitness News sponsored and provided live coverage of the March of Dimes March for Babies.

June 15: Eyewitness News sponsored and provided live coverage of GBMC's 20th Annual Father's Day Race to benefit the hospital's Neonatal Intensive Care Unit.

ON TIME

April 27: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Maryland is having the Biggest Little Tailgating Party and representatives from the event gave Kai Jackson a taste of what's to come. Ted Stelzenmuller, a chef from Jack's Bistro prepared an off the wall dish involving ranch ice cream as a dressing for a BLT salad. Lauren Franzoni explained how the money from the event helps match the adult mentors with children in need.

April 27: Kai Jackson talks with Robyn Scates who has organized an upcoming Girls' Empowerment Conference and Expo entitled “She Matters”. Young girls are in need of workshops on career development to self-esteem issues. Carlee Roscoe got involved as a participant in the fashion show and says that adolescent girls need guidance in self-image.

May 4: Kai Jackson talks with pediatrician, mother and author, Dr. Sybil Pentsil about her new book, “Motherhood Revisited.” She discusses how it is important for mothers to set limits and guidelines for their children as well as make time for their spouses.

May 18: Baltimore City youth need summer jobs and Alice Cole and Jim Hamlin talk with Kai Jackson about their program to raise money and jobs for young people. They discuss why its important for all businesses to offer jobs to city youth and how this program trains young people to be the workforce of tomorrow.

May 25: Kai Jackson talks with Gene Roberts and his wife, Marian Alicia, about his run across America for Jesus. Gene, who is a double amputee, tells Kai of several problems he had with his prosthetics. He talks about the positive reception he had in the various towns he ran through on his journey across the country.

June 8: A Call to Action is going out to African American men in Baltimore to attend an event on Father's Day that is designed to engage them in taking an active role in their community. Alvin Gillard and Richard Rowe tell Kai Jackson that over one hundred non-profit organizations are participating at the event and will provide services to men needing help with various problems. The goal is to recruit 5000 men as volunteers in their children's schools, serve as role models in the community and take responsibility for their community.

June 8: Diane Bell McKoy, the president and CEO of Associated Black Charities tells Kai Jackson about the programs to build and sustain a healthy Black Middle Class. In order to fund their programs, she discusses an upcoming gala to honor sports legends with ties to the Baltimore Washington area.

June 29: The Carroll County Center for Conscious Living is sponsoring a forgiveness workshop and Rev. Iris Sauber tells Kai Jackson how important it is for everyone to forgive themselves and others in order to live a healthy and happy life.

ART & CULTURE

April 2: Eyewitness News did a story on Paris Hilton's reality show search for a new best friend.

April 2: Eyewitness News did a story on local ice skating champion Kimmie Meissner who was back in town Stars on Ice.

April 3: Eyewitness News did a story on the line up for the Virgin Music Festival coming to Pimlico Race Course in August.

April 4: Eyewitness News did a story on the 40th anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King's assassination and the reenactment of King's famed "Drum Major" speech.

April 4: Eyewitness News did a story on the Dance 2008 National Dancesport Championships in Baltimore.

April 5: Eyewitness News did a story on the Cherry Blossom Festival.

April 8: Eyewitness News did a story on the WJZ March Madness Bracket Challenge.

April 9: Eyewitness News did a story on naming the Maryland Zoo's new baby elephant.

April 11: Eyewitness News did a story on actress Renee Zellweger who is filming Romantic Comedy in Baltimore.

April 15: Eyewitness News did a story on the Washington DC visit of Pope Benedict XVI.

April 16: Eyewitness News did a story on the Gaithersburg woman who won the Pillsbury Bake-Off Competition.

April 16: Eyewitness News did a story on "Baseball Idol" at Oriole Park.

April 17: Eyewitness News did a story on "Library Idol" at the Enoch Pratt Free Library.

April 17: Eyewitness News did a story on A Taste of Catonsville.

April 21: Eyewitness News did a story on the Leukemia motorcycle benefit ride.

April 22: Eyewitness News did a story on an award winning artist/photographer from Hampden.

April 22: Eyewitness News did a story on Earth Day observances in Maryland.

April 25: Eyewitness News did a story on the Towson University Dance Team winning its 10th straight national title.

May 2: Eyewitness News did a story on The Color Purple opening at the Hippodrome Theatre in Baltimore.

May 2: Eyewitness News did a story on the Spring Flower Mart Festival in Mount Vernon.

May 2: Eyewitness News did a story on the 10th Annual Maryland Film Festival.

May 3: Eyewitness News did a story on the 10th annual running of the kinetic sculpture race in Baltimore.

May 7: Eyewitness News did a story on a world BMX champ who is a 6th grader from Clarksville.

May 8: Eyewitness News did a story on one of the tall ships docking in Baltimore's Inner Harbor.

May 8: Eyewitness News did a story on the bust of Frank Zappa being placed in downtown Baltimore.

May 8: Eyewitness News did a story on the new baby camel's debut at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore.

May 10: Eyewitness News did a story on the 35th annual Preakness Celebration Parade.

May 12: Eyewitness News did a story on the Mixed Martial Arts boom in Maryland.

May 14: Eyewitness News did a story on the Special Olympics at the Baer School in West Baltimore.

May 15: Eyewitness News did a story on the official painter of the Preakness.

May 17: Eyewitness News did a story on the 133rd annual running of the Preakness Stakes.

May 19: Eyewitness News did a story on Kimmie Meissner's Cool Kids' campaign and fundraiser run.

May 19: Eyewitness News did a story on a Star Spangled Banner Commemorative coin.

May 21: Eyewitness News did a story on the Blue Angels demonstration at the Navy Graduation.

May 24: Eyewitness News did a story on the 10th Annual Bike Jam in Baltimore.

May 25: Eyewitness News did a story on Memorial Day at Ocean City.

May 27: Eyewitness News did a story on the Urban Pirates attraction in Fells Point.

June 1: Eyewitness News did a story on a genuine crystal skull featured in "Indiana Jones" that was on display at the Senator Theater.

June 3: Eyewitness News did a story on the Universoul Circus.

June 5: Eyewitness News did a story on the Annual Greek Festival in East Baltimore.

June 7: Eyewitness News did a story on the Special Olympics in Towson.

June 8: Eyewitness News did a story on the 17th Annual Toyota Great Chesapeake Bay Swim.

June 8: Eyewitness News did a story on The Federal Hill Jazz and Blues Festival.

June 9: Eyewitness News did a story on the New Ft. McHenry Trail.

June 11: Eyewitness News did a story on a benefit Tony Awards party at the Hippodrome.

June 13: Eyewitness News did a story on Baltimore's Honfest in Hampden.

June 16: Eyewitness News did a story on a mural being painted for the Third Annual Harbor East Fine Arts and Music Festival.

June 19: Eyewitness News did a story on an artist taking advantage of the Body Worlds Exhibit at the Maryland Science Center.

June 19: Eyewitness News did a story on the Dew Tour at Camden Yards.

June 20: Eyewitness News did a story on the movie stars in town filming movies.

June 22: Eyewitness News did a story on the Antique Automotive Club of America show at the B&O Railroad Museum.

June 22: Eyewitness News did a story on the 33rd annual Baltimore Pride Festival in Druid Hill Park.

June 27: Eyewitness News did a story on a restored American Locomotive on display at the B&O Railroad Museum.

June 28: Eyewitness News did a story on a new polar bear on loan to the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore.

June 28: Eyewitness News did a story on the 7th Annual African-American Heritage Festival at Camden Yards

ON TIME

April 6: Kai Jackson talks with the curator from the Baltimore Museum of Art about the new exhibition, "Looking Through the Lens: Photography 1900-1960." They discuss how photography as an art form has evolved with technology.

May 4: African Art Curator, Karen Milbourne tells Kai Jackson about the third installment of Meditations on African Art that examines the role of pattern in masks, fabric, sculpture and painting. In conjunction with this installation, the Baltimore Museum of Art is holding a unique event that examines how patterns are displayed on the human body in the form of a tattoo.

May 11: Dr. David Terry tells Kai Jackson about a new exhibition opening at the Lewis Museum to be part of the Festival of Maps. "A People's Geography: The Space of African American Life" looks at the African American journey from the Middle Passage to present day.

May 18: Kai Jackson talks with former CBS anchor Mark McEwen from The Early Show about his new book, "Change in the Weather: Life After Stroke". He discusses the symptoms he had and how his situation was misdiagnosed originally and how that led to his having a massive second stroke, which almost killed him.

May 18: Alexscar Records, a new recording label in Baltimore, has ties to the late great Grammy winning songwriter producer Clarence Skip Scarborough who died in 2003. Kai Jackson talks with his widow, Alton

McClain Scarborough the president and CEO of the record label and saxophonist David Marq, the grandson of jazz great Billy Taylor Sr. and nephew to Billy Taylor Jr., a jazz musician and contributor to CBS' Sunday Morning.

May 25& June 22: Author Ta-Nehisi Coates tells Kai Jackson that his new book, "The Beautiful Struggle" tells of his growing up in West Baltimore with a father who was member of the Black Panthers who later founded Black Classic Press. He discusses his father's role in his upbringing and how the book examined both his and his older brother's lives.

June 8: As the population ages, so do actors and actresses going into the entertainment business. Senior Theatre is a 20-year-old concept that is growing in popularity. Arne Lindquist and John Astin, an actor well known for his Gomez Adams on The Adams Family television series, tell Kai Jackson about an upcoming senior theatre conference coming to Baltimore.

June 15: The author of "A Box of White Chocolate" tells Kai Jackson that the idea behind his book came from talking with female friends who were having difficult times finding eligible African American men to date. He discusses the pros and cons of dating someone from another race and culture.

June 29: Kai Jackson talks with the organizer and performers in this year's Chautauqua that is focusing on civil rights. Dr. Bill Watson discusses the origins of Chautauqua and Bill Grimmette and Gwendolyn Briley-Stand discuss Martin Luther King Jr. and Rosa Parks and their contributions to the civil rights movement.